J. M. SMITH & CO.,

HAVE RECEIVED PER LATE ARRIV.

Sands' Sarsaparilla, Townsend's do., Ayers' do., Bristol's do., Shakers' do., Root do., Ayers' Cherry Pectoral, Balsam for the Lungs, Balsam of Wild Cherry, Hypophosphites of Lime a Soda, Compound Extract of Buchu, Capsules, Compound Extract of Booha, Capsuler Thorn's Extract, Crossman's Specific, Pills and Omments, of various kinds, Liniments, Plasters, Pectoral Funigato Sponges, Hamborg Tea, Lily White, Funigating Pastils, Trusses, J. R. Cook's Nippies, Nipple Shields, Lubin's and Pinaud's Extracts, Toilet Articles, Lip Salve,

Indelible Pencils, a New Invention Hair Restorers and Dressings, Syringes, Leeches, etc., etc., etc. Drugs of all kinds, Corner of Fort and Hotel streets. 11-tf

MAKEE PLANTATION. NEW CROP OF SUGAR AND MOLASSES Now coming in. C. BREWER & Co., Agents.

Lanai Charcoal. BEST FOR IRONING. For Sale WALKER & ALLEN.

R. R. R.

100

OF DEATHS, that annually occur, are caused by Preventable Diseases, and the greater portion of those complaints would, if Radway's Ready Relief or Pills, (as the case may require,) were administered when pain or uncasiness or lie, that her father had taken her out with be exterminated from the sys-Ready Relief. In cases of Cho- lost her path, and wandered off to the edge lera, Diarrhoea, Cramps, Spasms Bilious Cholic, in fact all Pains, Aches and Infirmities either in the Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, her. Kidneys, or the Joints, Muscles, Legs, Arms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Headtiful, the tender-hearted Lisette, was in mortal danger, and it was in his power to FEW MINUTES yield to the Sudden Colds, Coughs, Influence, Diptheria, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Chills, Fever and Ague, Mercurial Pains, Scarlet Forer, &c., &c., take from four to six of Railway's Pills, and also take a tosspoorful of the Beady Relief in a glass of warm water, awectened with sugar or honey; bathe the throat, head and chest with Ready Relief, (if Ague or Intermittent Fever, bathe the spine also,) in the morning you will be cured.

How the Ready Relief Acts!

In a few minutes the patient will feel a slight tingling irritation, and the skin becomes reddened; if there is much assist nature in the stomach, the Relief will assist nature in general removing the offending cause,-a general and its diffusive stimulating properties rapidly courses through every vein and tissue of the system, arousing the slothful and partially paralyzed glands and organs to renewed and healthy action perspiration fol-lows, and the surface of the body feels in-creased heat. The sickness at stomach, colds, chills, head-sche, oppressed breathing, the screness of the throat, and all pains, either internally or externally, rapidly subside, and the patient falls into a tranquil sleep, awakes refreshed, invigorated, cured.

It will be found that in using the Relief externally, either on the spine or across the kidneys, or over the stomach and bowels, that for several days after a pleasing warmth will be felt, showing the length of time it contimues its influence over the diseased parts.

Price of R. R. R. RELIEF, 50 cen Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, Grocers, &c.

RADWAY & CO., 87 Maiden Lane, New York.

TYPHOID FEVER.

This disease is not only cured by Dr. Radway's Relief and Pills, but prevented. If exposed to it, put one teaspoonful of Relief in a tumbler of water. Drink this before going out in the morning, and several times during one hour before dinner, and one on permission was granted him to tell his own going to bed

If seized with Fever, take 4 to 6 of the Pills every six hours, until copious discharges from the bowels take place; also drink the Relief diluted with water, and bathe the entire surface of the body with Relief. Soon a powerful perspiration will take place, and you will feel a pleasant heat throughout the system. Keep on taking Relief repeatedly, every four hours, also the A cure will be sure to follow. The relief is strongthening, stimulating, soothing, and quieting; it is sure to Yellow Fever, Ship Fever, Bilious Fever, will effect a cure in 24 hours. When the patient feels the Relief irritating or heating the skin, a cure is positive. In all cases where pain is felt the Relief should be used.

Relief 50 ets.; Pills 25 ets. Sold by all Druggists. See Dr. Radway's Almanac for 1868

For Sale by

Crane & Brigham, San Francisco, R. H. McDonald & Co. San Francisco Justin Gates & Bro, Sacramento. The Condemned Sentinel.

A STORY OF THE PERSON ARMY.

On a cold stormy night in the month of March, 1807, Marshal Lefebvre, with twenty-seven thousand French troops, had invested Dantzic. The city was garrisoned by seventeen thousand Russian and Prus n soldiers, and these, together with twenty or thirty thousand well-armed citizens, presented nearly double the force which could be brought to the assault. So there was need of the utmost vigilance on the part of the sentinels, for a desperate sortie from the garrison made unawares might prove calamitous.

At midnight Jerome Dubois was placed upon one of the most important posts in the advanced line of pickets, it being a narrow strip of land raised above the marshy flat, called the peninsula of Nehrung. For more than an hour he paced his lonesome beat without hearing anything more than the moaning of the wind and the driving of the rain. At length. however, another sound broke upon his He stooped and listened, and presently he called out:

"Who's there?" The only answer was morning sound.

He called again, and this time, he heard omething like the cry of a child; and pretty soon the object came towards him out from the darkness. With a quick emphat-ic movement he brought his musket to the charge and ordered the introder to halt. "Mercy!" exclaimed a childish voice.

"Don't shoot me; I am Natalie. Don't you know me?"
"Heavens!" cried Jerome, elevating the muzzle of his piece, "Is it you dear child?" "Yes; and you are good Jerome. Oh, you will come and help mamma! Come. she is dying!"

It was certainly Natalie, a little girl only eight years old, daughter of Lisette Vail-lant. Lisette was the daughter of Pierre Vaillant, a sergeaut in Jerome's own regi ment, and was in the army in the capacity

"Why, how is this, my child," said Jerome, taking the little one by the arm-"what is it about your mother?" "Ob, good Jerome, can you hear her

The sentinel bent his ear, but could hear nly the wind and rain. "Mamma is in the mud," said the child, slight sickness is experienced, him in the evening, when the storm came on. Her mother came after her, and the sergeant had offered to send a man back tem in a few hours. PAIN, no to camp with his wife; but she preferred matter from what cause, is to return alone, feeling sure that she would almost instantly cured by the had become dark and uncertain, and she meet with no trouble.

> of the morass, where she sunk into the "Oh, good Jerome," cried the little one. eizing the man's hand, "can't you hear her? She will die if you do not come and help

At that moment he funcied he heard the waii of the unfortunate woman. What should be do? Lisette, the good, the beau-It was not in his power to withsoothing influence of the Ready go and rescue the nurse and return to the ost without detection. At all events, he could not refuse the childreh pleader.

"Give me your hand, Natalie, I will go with you." With a cry of joy, the child sprang to the soldier's side, and when she had secur-ed his hand she hurried him along towards the place where she had left her mother.

It seemed a long distance to Jerome, and once he stopped as though he would turn back. He did not fear death, but he fear-"Hark !" ottered the child.

The soldier listened, and plainly heard voice of the suffering woman calling for help. He hesitated no longer. On he hastened through the atorm, and found Lisette, sunk to her armpits in the soft morass. Fortunately, a tuft of long grass had been within her reach, by which she was no easy task to extricate her from the miry pit, as he had to be very careful that he did not himself lose his footing. At length, however, she was drawn forth, and Jerome led her toward his post.

Who comes there?" cried a voice from the gloom.
"Heavens!" gasped Jerome, stopping and trembling from head to foot. "Who comes there?" again repeated the Jerome heard the click of a musket lack and well he knew that another sentinel had been stationed at the post he had left. The relief guard had come while he was

"Friend, with the countersign!" he answered to the new sentinel.

He was ordered to advance, and when he had given the countersign, he found himself in the presence of the officer of the guard. In a few hurried words he tale his story, and had the officer been alone, he might have allowed the matter to rest where it was; but there were others present, and when ordered to give up his musket, he obeyed without a murmur, and silently accompanied the officer to the camp, where he was at once put in irons. On the following morning Jerome Du-bois was brought before a court-martial, the morning, and several times during under charge of having deserted his post. the day. Take one of Radway's Pills He confessed that he was guilty, and then

> This he did in a few words, but the court could do nothing but pass sentence of death; but the members all signed a peti-tion praying that Jerome Dubois might be pardoned, and this petition was sent to the General of the division, by whom it was endorsed and sent up to the marshal.

Lefebvre was kind and generous to his soldiers, almost to a fault; but he could not overlook so grave an error as that which had been committed by Dubois. The orders given to the sentinel had been very simple, and foremost, of very neces sity, was the order forbidding him to leave soothing, and quieting; it is sure to break up the Fever and to neutralize the poison. Let this treatment be followed, and thousands will be saved.

The same treatment in Fever and Ague, at night, were posted nearest the lines of the arment of the same treatment in Fever and Ague, at night, were posted nearest the lines of the arment of

"I am sorry," said the gray haired old warrior, as he folded up the petition and handed it back to the officer who presented it. "I am sure that the man meant no wrong, and yet a great wrong was done. He knew what he was doing; he ran the risk; he was detected; he has been tried nd condemned, and he must suffer!"

They asked Lefebvre if he would see the

"No, no!" the Marshal cried quickly. Should I see him and listen to one-half of his story, I might pardon him, and that must not be done. Let him die, that thou-sands may be raved."

The time fixed for the execution of Du bois was the morning succeeding the trial. The result of the interview with Marshal And by all Druggists and Country Lefebvre was made known to him, and he was not at all disappointed; he blamed no one, and was only sorry that he had not having lost much more than they had Japanese Accounts of the State died upon the battle-field.

his feelings were already wrought up to a pitch that almost unmanned him; but he braced himself for the interview, and would have stood it like a hero had not little Natalie, in the eagerness of her love and gratitude, thrown herself upon his bosom and offered to die in his stead. This tipped the brimming cup, and his tears flowed freely. Pierre and Lisette knew not what to say. They wept and prayed, and would willingly have died for the noble fellow who had thus been condemned.

Later in the evening came a companion, who, if he lived, would at some time return to Jerome's boyhood home. First, the con-demned thought of his widowed mother, and he sent her a message of love and de-votion. Then he thought of a brother and sister; and finally, he thought of one-a bright-eyed maid, whose vine-clad cot stood ipon the banks of the Seine-one whom e had loved with a love such as only great hearts can feel.

"Oh, my dear friend!" he cried, bowing his head upon his clasped hands, "you need not tell them a falsehood, but if the thing is possible, let them believe that I fell in

His companion promised that he would do all he could, and if the truth could not be kept back, it should be so furthfully told that the name of Jerome Dubois should not bear dishonor in the minds of those who had loved him in other days.

Morning came, dull and gloomy, with driving sleet and snow, and at an early our Jerome Dubois was led forth to meet his fate. The place of execution had been fixed upon a low, barren spot towards the sea, and thither his division was being marched to witness the fearful punishment. They had gained not more than half the ance when the sound of some strange commotion broke upon the wintry air, and very shortly an aid-de-camp came dashing to the side of the General of the brigade

"A sortie! a sortie! The enemy are out in force. Let this thing be stayed. The Marshal directs that you face about and advance upon the peninsula!"

In an instant all was changed in that division, and the Brigadier-General who had temporary command, thundered forth his orders for the countermarch. The gloom was dissipated, and with glad hearts the oldiers turned from the execution of a brave comrade to thoughts of meeting the emy.
What shall we do with the prisoner?"

asked the sergeant who had charge of the "Lead him back to camp," replied the

The direction was very simple, but the execution thereof was not so easy, for hardly had the words escaped the Captain's lips when a squadron of Prussian cavalry

The division was quickly formed into a hollow square, while the guard that held charge of the prisoner found themselves obliged to flee "In Heaven's name," cried Jerome Dubois," "cut my bands and let me die like a The sergeant quickly cut the cords that bound his elbows behind him, and then dashed towards the point where his own company was stationed. The rattle of musketry had commenced, and the Prussians were vainly endeavoring to break the squares of the French troops. Jerome Dubois looked about for some weapon with which to arm himself, and presently he saw Prussian officer, not far off, reel in his saddle as though he had been wounded.

With a quick bound he reached the spot, pulled the dying officer from his seat, and leaped into the empty saddle.

Indica was figure saddle.

Dubois was firmly resolved that he would sell his life on that day—sell it in behalf of France—and sell it as dearly as possible. held her head above the fatal mud. It But he was not needed where he was. He knew that the Prussians could not break those hollow squares, as he rode away, thinking to join the French cavalry, with whom he could rush into the deepest dan-ger. Supposing that the heaviest fighting ust be upon the Nehrung, he rode his orse in that direction, and when he reachit, he found that he was not mistaken. Upon a slight eminence toward Hadelberg

"Take that battery," he said to a Colonel f cavalry, "and the battle is ours," Dubois heard the order and saw the necessity. Here was danger enough, surely; he determined to be the first at the fatal The point upon the peninsula now reached by the head of the assailing column was not more than a hundred yards wide, and it was literally a path of death, as the fire of twelve guns were directed upon it. The Colome had fallen, and very soon three other officers went down, leaving the advance without a commissioned leader. The path was becoming blocked up with dead men and dead horses, and the head of the column stopped and wavered.

English-speaking guide to Notre Dame for the Japanese are fools and barbarous. They ought to select and promots wise and virtuous persons, and call full attended to the moral education of the people.

A Story for Swearres.—A gentle-man once heard a laboring man swear terribly in the presence of a number of his companions. He told him it was a cowardly thing to swear so in company when he dared not do it by himself. The friends dow, and declared he would never.

forward. His words are fiery, and his look | "Take him away, Bill, for mercy's sake rseman cries, waving his sword aloft and pup."

It was not in the power of the cannoniers to withstand the shock, and the Russian infantry that came to their support were swept away like chaff. The battery was quickly captured, and when the gans had been turned upon those who had both ed upon the battle-field.

"I have tried to be a good soldier," he did to his captain. "I feel that I have house, and gave himself up to the officer had heard the whole story; "I'll pardon him to-day, and to-morrow I'll promote Tycoon and Daimios.

CONCERNING CALVES .- Calves are of been "a sui-generis,"—perhaps I should say a fucoi-generis, for we are credibly in-formed by one T. Hood, that a Miss Kilemskegg also had a golden calf. Be that as it may, the calf I speak of was roasted at an early age, and probably there is none of that stock in market now.

thing" on calves. He was considered a pretty sharp operator at that time, and as the words speculate, speculated, spectrum, &c. As American securities were not in market at that time, and English Consols were quoted below par, perhaps Jacob could not have done better; at all events, he "bulled the market" to some purpose.

It is a source of self-congratulation to think that I was not obliged to live at that time, for I am not passionately fond of speckled calves.

I found one at the barn a few mornings it up by hand. It is a very nice way to bring up calves. I did it in this way. Got a pail of warm milk, backed the calf into corner, and, according to instructions, put a finger in its mouth, and—made a discovery. Calves must cut their teeth when quite young. This one chawed up three fingers and then butted the pail over. That ended the first lesson. Got my fin gers done up, and was then advised to give it a cob to suck. Started in with ome more milk and a basket of cobs. Put ne in its mouth and jammed its head into the pail. After a few splutters and splurges, it succeeded in getting the cobhalf way down its throat, and commenced coughing. I thought the little darling would choke to death. An sorry it didn't. Just then it gave another butt, and sent the pail and one hand through the side of the barn-inch hemlock at that. One of my boys remarked that "it went full siteer." From the looks of my hand I thought it did. After that the calf had another choking spell, but it was not caused by cobs. As I started to go after my hand and pail it gave another butt :- but why particularize? Am of the opinion that that calf was made wrong end to My wife here volunteered the suggestion that " I lacked in patience, and she that she could feed it." Meekly I allowed her to try, and with placid serenity looked on while she did so. It was a lively scene. After chasing the calf around a while, she anaged to get hold of one of its ears. Bringing it up, she succeeded in getting its nose in the pail, when "presto, change," over went the milk. My wife is of an economical turn of mind, and succeeded in curing most of that pail of milk in the folds of her dress.

I sincerely hope the calf will forget the week afterwards. It took several slings to cure it. Hot slings seemed to do the most good. The calf wiped its nose on my pants, and "bust up" a new pail. I quit taking advice then, and fixing a trough where the calf could reach it, poured in some milk and left. The next day the trough was empty. That calf drinks now. trough was empty. That calf drinks now. Yedo, at Hiogo and Kober and if he in-Some calves are stuffed with bran and tends to come by the Tokiabo why he ome with straw. Such always go in pairs, leaves Oaska unguarded, which lies west-guns, supported by two regiments of infantry, and already with shot and shell, immense damage had been done.

Worcester Palladium.

Marshal Lefebvre rode up shortly after this battery had opened, and very quickly shire man lately thus:—"I'm looking out all the strategic points of the place. You all hazards.

Tak motives of Englishmen for visiting Mikado, Tokugawa or the Dalmios is right, as one day they are good friends, and the shire man lately thus:—"I'm looking out all the strategic points of the place. You see, after this Emperor's death, there's has lasted for three handred years, the people have become laxurious and idle, and those who want to strengthen the to being quiet under a woman, why that's military power are apt to become too absurd. Then, of course they'll fight; and they must fight at the telling places; out inclining to either side, because they he determined to be the first at the fatal battery, and kept as near to the leader as he dured. Half the distance had been gained, when from the hill came a storm of iron that plowed into the French. The Colonel fell his body literally torn in pieces by a shell that exploded against his bosom.

The point upon the peninsula now reach all fell as the head of the assailing colons was a says the Emperor has not only done more any treour parts of the says the Emperor has not only done more any treour parts. Out inclining to either side, because they these are the ones. The getting up. You are in want of education, which is of greaters in which is of greaters in programs as the second and support and inclining to either side, because they these are the ones. The getting up. You are in want of education, which is of greaters are the ones. The second is only inclining to either side, because they these are the ones. The getting up. You are in want of education, which is of greaters are the ones. The est importance in judging aright. There are some, amongst the Japanese, who are in want of education, which is of greaters in want of education, which is of greaters are the ones. The getting up. You are in want of education, which is of greaters are the ones. The est importance in judging aright. There are some, amongst the Japanese, who are in want of education, which is of greaters are the ones. The contraction of the assailled and the second and are in want of education, which is of greaters in want of education are in want of education, which is of greaters in want of education are in want of educatio men and dead horses, and the head of the column stopped and wavered.

Marshal Lefebvre, from his elevated position, saw this, and his heart throbbed painfully. If that column was routed and the Russian infantry charged over the peninsula, the result might be calamitous.

But, see! A man in the uniform of a Result property of the uniform of a Result property of the uniform of a rowerful instant. The sagracious animal imprediate-French private, mounted on a powerful horse, caprisoned in the trapping of a Prussian staff officer, with his head bare, and a bright sabre swinging in his hand, naturally than when endeavouring to countain the property of the purpose of the purpose of the sabre swinging in his hand. rushes to the front, and urges the column terfeit a member of the bovine race. dauntless.
"For France and Lefebvre!" the strange a bit, Jem, it'll be the making of the horseman cries, waving his sword aloft and pointing to the battery. "The Marshal will weep if we lose this day."

The have troopers, thus led by one who feared not to dash forward where the shot fell thickest, gave an answering shout and pressed on, caring little for the rain of death so long as they had a living leader to follow. Hoping that he might take the hattery, and yet courting death. Jerome battery, and yet courting death, Jerome time, was promptly interrogated as to the Dubois spurred on; finally the troops came cause. Slightly embarrassed, he replied:

short time before were their masters, the fortune of the day was decided. The Russians and Prussians—horse, foot, and dragoons—such as were not taken prisoners, their ballots in the letter-boxes.

"I have tried to be a good soldier," he said to his captain. "I feel that I have done no crime that would leave a stain upon my name."

The captain took his hand and assured him that his name should be held in respect.

Toward evening, Pierre Vaillant, with his wife and child, were admitted to see the prisoner. This was a visit which Jenone would gladly have dispensed with, as rome would gladly have dispensed with, as rome would gladly have dispensed with as the cause of the bois?"

Jerome Duoos retained to the officer in charge. First a sugreon was called to dress several light wounds which he had foreigners came over to Japan; so the Tycono explained to the Mikado their request in regard to the opening of ports and commerce; but he had so many difficulties in obtaining his consent, that he was obliged to conclude treaties with foreigners for the benefit of the country without the consent. This is the cause of the said to have a dispensed with a said to have a dispense to house, and gave himself up to the officer in charge. First a sugreon was called to dress several light wounds which he had is power had grown very great when the foreigners came over to Japan; so the Tycono explained to the Mikado their request in regard to the opening of ports in calles in obtaining his consent, that he was obliged to conclude treaties with foreigners for the benefit of the country without the consent. This is the cause of the consent of the country with the consent. "God bless him?" cried the Marshal, who out that consent. This is the cause of Tycoon and Daimios.

As the Mikado has been accustomed to And Jerome Dubois, in time, went him-self to see the loved ones in France, and and strictly adheres to the unchanged old when he went he wore the uniform of Captain."

Tales, he knows little about the condition of the country, so he has listened to the Daimios, according to whose opinion he has given orders.

The secret plan of Satsuma to deprive very ancient origin. The first one distinctly mentioned in history must have been "a swi-generis,"—perhaps I should ted with him. But Choshiu first commenced war near the Mikado's palace, and he also attacked foreigners. Thus he in various ways offended the Tokugawa. As soon as Satsuma found that the power of Tokogawa gradually grew less he differed Some time after this, Jacob "made a good Hiogo Port with the view of ultimately opposing him. But the Tycoon being unetty sharp operator at that time, and as ost of his calves were speckled, we get try, of his own will resigned his office, surrendering his power to the Mikado. At this Satsuma and others have been much more encouraged, and entered Yodo, and plundered the people.

To ascertain where these plunders came from the guards of the city kept close watch at some houses in town. One of the plunderers fired a gun at them, shot one or two of them dead; but after-wards the guard still kept themselves since, and in a moment of desperation re-solved to raise it. Was advised to bring it up by hand. It is a constant of the cons ed to Satsuma. Tokugawa gave orders to his troops to punish them, and destroy the yashikis of Satsuma. This being done, the survivors fled to Miako, and reported to their superiors what had taken place in

On hearing it, their anger became furious; and they sending the troops of Sats-umn and Choshiu under the pretext of the Imperial order, commenced war at Fooshimi and Yedo. Soon after the Tycoon left the castle of Osaka the men commenced plundering, under the pretext that they were making capture. It cannot be understood why Satsuma so often changed the mark which he made at the door of every house, the owner of which had preited money to Tokugawa; he first marked that property which was captured by Satsuma and he marked again that property which was kept by him and no one could touch it, lastly, he marked that pro-perty which was examined by him.

The Mikado has raised his forces to attack Tokugawa and put some of Satsuma and Choshiu's men as advancing troops, but the Tycoon knows that the Mikado's orders should be observed, so he has gone out of the castle and confined himself at Wooyeno in order to show that he shall not oppose the Imperial forces. It is ru-mored that the men of Satsuma entered Yedo yesterday with warlike equipments. Any one who gets near the Mikado and talks often with him can be listened to by

During the time when Tokugawa was in rosperous, state for three hundred years ie Mikado left the Government under his charge without listening to any Dai-mios. Lately when Choshiu fired guns near the Mikado's palace Satsuma united with Tokugawa in attacking him in Miako, I sincerely hope the calf will forget the balance of that lesson, for he is a she-calf, and I dislike a kicking cow.

Was then advised to let the calf get hungry. So let it fast three days. Was obliged to carry one hand in a sling for a obliged to carry one hand in a sling for a under the Mikado's order. It is very controlled to the carry one who gets the controlled to the carry one who gets the carry one who

and to look well should be nearly of a size. Color is not of so much importance.

If Jacob brought his calves up by hand, don't think that Laban did any more than the fair thing by him. I wouldn't have taken the contract if he had had a dozen girls, and offered me the lot.—[N., in the Worcester, Palluchium.]

to carry the Mikado over to Osaki man said he was not afraid to swear at any time and at any place.

"I will give you ten dollars," said the gentleman, "if you will go into the village churchyard, at twelve o'clock to-night, swear the same oaths which you have ut-tered here, when you are alone with your easy, way of earning ten dollars !"

you come to me to-morrow and say you have done it the money is yours."

The time passed on; midnight came. The man went to the graveyard. It was a night of pitchy darkness. As he entered the graveyard not a sound was beard all was a state of the graveyard not a sound was beard all was as still as death. The gentleman's words, "all alone with God" came over him with wonderful power. The thought of the wickedness he had committed, and what he came there to do, darted through his mind like a flash of lightning. He trembled at his fully. Afraid to take another step he fell on his knees, and instead of the dreadful oaths he came there to atter, the earnest cry went up: "God be merciful to me, a sing and thanked him for what he had done, and said he had resolved not to swear another oath as long as he lived.

A Youngster is congratulating himself that he has got the measles at last. He says he shall not any longer be kept from playing with the boys, for fear he may catch it. That little chap is a philosopher, and understands the doctrine of compensa-

FOREIGN NOTICES.

LANGLEY, CROWELL & CO., Wholesale Druggists. Cor. Battery and Clay Streets,

SEVERANCE, CLARK & CO., Commission Merchants

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. [6m

SHIPPING AGENTS, San Francisco, Cala.

We will attend to the sale of Sugar, and all kinds of Island Produce, also to the purchas-ing and forwarding of Merchandise. Cash Advances made on Consign-ments.

E. M. VAN REED, COMMISSION MERCHANT.

KANAGAWA. Having the best facilities through an intimate connection with the Japanese trade for the past eight years, is prepared to transact any business entrusted to his care, with dispatch.

M'CRAKEN, MERRILL & CO., Forwarding and COMMISSION MERCHANTS

PORTLAND, OREGON. HAVING been engaged in our present business for upwards of seven yeas, and being located in a Fire-proof Brick Building, we are prepared to receive and dispose of Island Staples, such as Sugar, Rice, Syrups, Pulu, Coffee, etc., to advantage. Consignments especially solicited for the Oregon Market, to which personal attention will be paid, and upon which cash advances will be made when required.

- REFERENCES -Chas. W. Brooks & Co., - - San Francisco. Aldrich, Merrill & Co., - - -Addrich, Merrill & Co.,
Fred, Iken,
Badger & Lindenberger,
Jas. Patrick & Co.,
W. T. Coleman & Co.,
Stevens, Baker & Co.,
Allen & Lewis,
Ladd & Tilton,
Leonard & George Portland. Leonard & Green, - S. Savidge, - -

ACENTS WANTED

At once to canvass the most

POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS

OF THE SEASON.

The following works are now being canvas ed in several counties of the coast and with the best of success, and good men can do well on any one of them in a territory which has not been canvassed.

Mackenzie's 10,000 Receipts. The best book of the kind ever published. SIN HUNDRED COPIES have been sold in

Beyond the Mississippi.—Contain Bancroft's Map of the Pacific

Comprising Early History, Geography and Scenery, Climate, Agriculture and Commercial Products, Manofactures, Mining, Railroads and Commerce, Population, Educational Institutions, and a detailed description of each county, together with much other valuable information. One large cetave volume. The finest work ever gotten up on the Pacific Coast, published by H. H. BANCROFT & CO., San Francisco.

Lost Cause.—The only Southern His-tory of the war published. Very large sales have been made in the territory now already worked. A new revised and enlarged edition

The American Wheat Culturist -Practical details for selecting and pro-ducing new varieties and cultivating on dif-ferent kinds of soil. A new work just ready. History of the Secret Service of the United States. -- "The most exciting and interesting book ever published."

In addition to the above list we have many other first-class works which offer good inducements to active men, and new works constantly received. Those desiring un agency on any of these works will please apply at once for terms to agents, etc., etc., and name two or three different counties that will be satisfactory, when their first choice will be given if possible. H. H. BANCROFT & CO., Subscription Dep't, San Francisco, Cal.

The Best Book for Agents Yet Published.

Above 500 copies sold in San Francisco in advance of publicati

THE NATURAL WEALTH OF CALIFORNIA.

By Titus Fey Cronise, assisted by a corps of writers selected with aspecial re-ference to their knowledge of, and ability to read, the several departments comprised in the volume. Complete in one large Im-perial Octavo Volume of over 700 pages, printed on fine paper from new type, and substantially bound in heavy beyind covers. This elegant work is a Cyclopedia of valua-information embasis. and interesting fact relating to the material resources and advantages of the Golden State, such as its History, Biography, Scenery, Goology, Natural History, Climate, Agriculture, Mining, Manufactures, Wealth, Products, etc. No intelligent Californian can afford to be without it. Sold only by subscription. Price $8.50. Published by

H. H. BANCROFT & CO.

San Francisco, Cal. A number of other first-rate Works now easily for Canvassers. Send for Circulars and state territory desired.

FOR SALE!

PUINART, pere & fils Champagne, H. HACKFELD & CO.,

Agents for Mesers. 24-2m] Ruinart, pere & file Rheime.

LEGAL NOTICES.

SUPREME COURT.

In the matter of the Bankruptcy of Akan. In the matter of the Bankraptey of Akan.

PROPER application having been made this 19th day of August, 18d8, to the Hon. James W. Austin, a Justice of the Supreme Court, by AKAU, a trader, lately doing business in Wainlun, Island of Cahn, satting forth that he owes more than One Thousand Dollars and that he is unable to pay his debts, the said Justice did order and decree that said Akan be a Voluntary Bankrupt.

That the Marshal of the Kingdem shall take and hold possession of all the said Bankrupt's property, and all persons holding any property of, or owing any debts to the said Akan, shall render the same to the Marshal and to no one else, and that no one else, and that

Thursday, the 3rd day of September next, at 10 O'CLOCK, A. M., be the day and he for all Creditors upon the said Bankrupa's Es-tate, to appear at the said Justice's Chambers in the Court House, Honolaku, to prove their

L. McCULLY, Clark of Supreme Court. 30-31

MARSHAL'S SALE.

Daniel Foster and Jacob Brown, vs. Apal. BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION D Issued from the Supreme Court of the Hawailan Islands upon a Judgment against APAL Defendant, in favor of DANIEL FOSTER and JACOB BROWN, Plaintiffs in Execution, for the sum of Two Hundred and Three Dollars, and Eight Cents, I have levied upon and shall expose for sale to the bighest bidder, On Tuesday, the 10th day of September next. at 10 O'CLOCK, A. M., at NAWILIWILI, Island of Kanal, so many of a certain herd of eatile of the number of 130 head, as will be sufficient to pay said Judgment, my costs, fees, expenses and commissions; unless said Judgment, interest, costs of suit, and my fees and commissions be previously paid.

W. C. PARKE,
Honolulu, August 10, 1868. Marshal.

A LL PERSONS CLAIMING ANY RIGHT or Title in said property, are notified to prove said claims on or before the filst day of August, instant, at the Marshal's Office in Henolulu. W. C. PARNE. W. C. PARKE.

Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands.

Ane (w) vs. Levi Morse, (k). WHEREAS, the Complainant in WHEREAS, the Complainant in the above ontitled cause has filed a petition unto the Hon. Elisha H. Allen, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, praying for a decree of divorce from her husband, the defendant aforesaid, on the ground of the absence from this Kingdom for three years and not hear from, of the said defendant. Now, this is to notify the said Levi Mores to appear before the Hon. Elisia H. Allen at his Chambers in the Court House, Honoldiu, on Tuesday, the 27th day of October, 1968, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time will be heard, the petition aforesaid.

WM. HUMPHREYS,
Deputy Clerk Supreme Court.
Honolulu, June 25, 1868.

In the Supreme Court Of the Hawaiian Islands-Oahu, s.s.

Catherine McGuire, Complainant, vs. Alexander McGuire, Defendant. Action brought before the Honorable Elisha H. Allen. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, at Chambers, upon petition this day field in the Supreme Court of the Hawnian Labouts.

SUMMONS to Alexander McGuire, ing over 200 illustrations. In several instances the commissions of our canvassers upon this work alone have amounted to over $100 a week.

Bancroft's Map of the Pacific States.—Fifth edition; revised to the present time. Decidedly the best map of the coast in existence.

Wells's Every Man His Own Lawyer.—As high as sixteen orders in a single day have been taken for this work. It is useful to every one.

Pcople's Book of Biography.—A new work, just ready, by the popular writer James Parton. A great number of the subjects are self-made men, "who paved their own way in this world," who were the "architects of their own fortunes." Read their own way in this world, "who were the "architects of their own fortunes." Read in like this inspires the young with courage and stimulates them to emulate such examples. A very large sale is expected.

Witness the Hon. E. H. Alien, Chief Justices [L. s.] of the Supreme Court at Honelule, this Sth day of Lee

Sth day of June, 1868. m L. McCULLY, Clerk.

Administrator's Notice.

LL PERSONS HAVING Claims A against the Estate of the late Clinton Jackson, of Honolulu, are hereby notified to present them to the undersigned, and all those indebted to the said Estate are requested to make prompt payment to the sams.

JAMES A. BURDICK. 28-51

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.

THE UNDERSIGNED, EXECUTORS OF the Will of John P. Parker, late of Ham-akus, Island of Hawaii, deceased, hereby notify all persons having claims against the Es-tate of the said John P. Parker, to present the same, and those insibiled to the Estate are requested to make immediate payment.

L. LYONS, J. P. PARKER, Executors of the Will of John P. Fark: Hemakus, June 19, 1868.—24-2m NEW, NEWER, NEWEST. Books! Books! Books!

BENNETT'S NEWS DEPOT. WHERE YOU WILL ALSO FIND

WHERE YOU WILL ALSO FIND

BLANK BOOKS of every description, from a 12½ cent Pass Book to a Marocco bound Ledger.

Large and small cap paper, ass'd sices,
Commercial Note-Paper, Ladies do.,
Fine Overland Mail Paper, Bull Paper,
Large and small, Mourning-Paper,
Buff and White Eart-lopes,
Ludies' Note open-end Envelopes,
Diaries for 1858,
Standard Works on the War,
Newspapers from the United States and Europe, in various languages. Europe, in various languages, Harpers' and Leslie's Publications, Chimney Corner, in monthly parts, Waverly Magasine, in monthly parts, Le Ben Ton of Paris Fachions,

Madame Demorest's Mirror of Fashions, Goder's Ladies' Book, Novels by Every Steamer, Noveletts, American Miscellany, Glasson's Pictorial, monthly parts, Spanish & English Distinuaries, High & Comman School Distinuaries, High & Comman School Distinuaries, Pens and Pencill, Black and Blue Ink, Fine Cigars, Fine Cut and Ping Tobacco. Both Chewing and Emoking, Charte, and Steel Engravings, Cutlery, Guitar and Violin Strings, All for sale as cheap as at any other place in this city, by

C. C. BENNETZ,

KONA COFFEE 1 Constantly on Hand and for Sale in Quant ties to Suit. THE UNDERSIGNED INFORMS the public that he leprepared to furnish Choice and Well Dried Kona Coffee, Having the agency of the following parties m

Kons:
Messis, Nevicle & Banante, Reopula.
H. N. Grenwell, North Kons.
D. Mostrouene, Kalles.
G. H. Spaulding, Kalles.
4. St. CLEGHORN.